

Dear Middle School Families,

We are proud of all our students have achieved this school year. We have learned and grown so much. Let's make sure that we continue to grow through the summer as well, so that our transition to the next grade level will be smooth.

Your middle school teachers require the following:

ALL STUDENTS:

Choose one or more of the following books to read:

- The Land of Stories: The Wishing Spell, by Chris Colfur
- Pax, by Sara Pennypacker
- Summer of My German Soldier, by Bette Greene
- Unbroken (The Young Adult Adaptation), by Laura Hillenbrand

Complete the two planning pages linked below to develop a book review for your chosen book. Then, create the final draft Book Review page with your neatest handwriting and color the pictures and designs (also linked). These three pages are due on the first day of school. Each student will also be required to take a quiz on his or her chosen book the first week of school.
